WILSON'S MILLS.
Also Furbush of Fredericktown, at work for E. Lary was drowned in the Magalloway just above the Narrows, Oct. 25th. He with two other men came down the river in a boat to bring a sick man and on their return they went to change places at the barn, when he stumbled, upsetting the boat. He seemed much frightened, clinging to one of the other men, but finally let go and sank not rising to the surface at all. The others being swimmers got ashore. The water is very deep in that locality, and they spent two days in trying to recover the body unsuccessfully, then went to Berlin for a diver, James Perry, who arrived Thursday with the necessary apparatus but did not go up until Saturday as the had to wait for a snow. The body was recovered about noon and taken to Berlin.
Wm. B. Garfield with a friend, Mr. Bartwell came on his annual vacation the first of the week, but owing to sickness Mr. G. started for home Thursday.
J. C. Dean has sold his hay to R. A. Twitchell.
John Olson has been to Berlin.
There were forty men at Flint's Hotel the two night last week.
Mrs. Horace Frost who has been staying at Parmachenee dam for some time just came down Thursday and is now stopping at J. W. Clark's.
Mrs. Saida Danforth who has been out on a vacation went back to the lake Saturday.

EAST STONEMAN.
J. Bartlett's house is nearly finished. I understand he is to move in the last of the week. He has made very many improvements which makes it more convenient and is a much better house than the one burned.
Dr. H. L. Bartlett who has been in practice at Athens for some months past is expected home soon on a visit. His many friends will be pleased to see his smiling face.
The latest cart run by Brown & McKee formerly by Brown & Allen is doing a good business.
Al Morse showed here Oct. 25th to a full house. The receipts for the evening were $45. Pretty good for so small a place. Everyone seemed very much pleased with it. It was the best show that has been here for some time. He has many friends here who were delighted to see him. We hope to see him next year and he can rely on a full house every time.
C. P. McKee and family of Rumford Falls visited friends here last week.
Geo. E. Paul of South Newmarket was in town a few days last week. He came to repair the engine at Elliot & Bartlett's Spen Mill. He lived here about 30 years and his many friends were pleased to see him and hope he will come back here to live again.

A PRISONER OF WAR.
Major Alfred R. Cathoun relates a personal experience in a most interesting manner. It will be published in this paper. Watch for the opening chapter.

WEST BUCKFIELD.
Sarah Morse is sick. Her sister, Mrs. J. E. Bennett of South Paris, is with her.
Augustus Mayhew and I. Tucker had huskings last week.
Oliver Smith of Stow, is at work for J. M. Smith.
J. M. Smith has taken the job to shingle the walls of Ellis Whitman's barn.
A. S. Bessey has bought Ernest Damon's oxen.
Warren Dross, threshed 1035 bushels of oats in five days last week.
Mrs. Nettie Bennett has returned from Berlin Falls, N. H.
Dell Morse is at work threshing for O. D. Warren.
There are three stray sheep at Ellis Whitman's, two ewes and a buck.
C. A. Whitman had a steer get choked with an apple and had to kill him.
There was a dance at A. Swan's last Friday night.
